Shopping & Galleries

The four islands of Islamorada are a linear treasure trove of unique shops and galleries. You'll be mesmerized by wood carvings, fused glass, fine oils and acrylics in Islamorada's galleries featuring the works of our local island artists as well as a world class selection of outstanding boutiques and jewelry shops.

The northernmost key in Islamorada, Plantation Key, is the perfect place to start your shopping extravaganza. Boutiques and specialty stores with a waterfront boardwalk await you at Casa Mar Village. Meander along and enjoy the view at this colorful collection of seaside shoppes - do a paddleboard demo or purchase fresh-caught fish from the seafood market.

A bit further south, still on Plantation Key, you'll enjoy the waterfront, Bahamas-style shopping experience at Old Conch Harbor, an eclectic, open air market. Plantation Key is also home to several unique galleries located at MM 88.8 oceanside featuring original acrylics, stained glass art and jewelry, pottery and bronze sculptures. While visiting these Old Road galleries, be sure to wander outside where you'll find hidden sanctuaries adorned with native hardwoods and winding paths. The Rain Barrel is where you'll find "Betsy" the giant lobster, a favorite photo stop, as well as an artisans' cove of souvenir and gift shops, a pottery studio and original art galleries.

Travel over Windley Key and enter Upper Matecumbe Key. Many of the shops here stretch along a walkable section known as the Morada Way Arts District, where the streets come alive on the third Thursday of each month for the evening Walk-about. One-of-a-kind jewelry stores, galleries and boutiques line a breezy expanse of the island on the oceanside.

On the bayside you'll be tempted by amazing underwater acrylic masterpieces, brilliant fused glass, and tropical inspired paintings in an array of galleries.

The lush tropical landscape of Upper Matecumbe Key is also dotted with unique stand-alone shops and clothing boutiques offering everything for the tourist, the homemaker and the outdoor adventurer in your life. Within the variety of shops, boutiques and galleries you will encounter artists and craftsmen creating the traditional to the whimsical.

Indian Key Fill, bordered by our famous turquoise waters, marks the transition still further south to our fourth island, Lower Matecumbe Key, where the seaside atmosphere takes you back to a simpler time at Robbie's Marina. An unusual blend of local art, conch crafts, jewelry and collectibles fill the Old Florida style shops and stands you'll find here.

Islamorada Plants and Trees

Hibiscus Marketing

Royal Poinciana

Some say this is the world's most colorful tree with fern-like leaves and flamboyant display of scarlet or orange-red flowers, often called the "fire tree." It is a fantastic shade tree because of its tall but elegant, wide-spreading umbrella-like canopy.

Bougainvillea

Nothing is more breathtaking than a bougainvillea in full bloom with its spectacular color. This thorny ornamental bush has colorful flowers in pink, magenta, purple, red, orange, white or yellow, and the colorful petals are actually leaves called bracts.

McLaughlin Photo

Gumbo Limbo

Comically referred to as the "Tourist Tree" because its bark is dark red and peeling like the skin of sunburnt tourists. One of the most hurricane-resistant trees, they were planted to serve as wind protection.

Key Lime

Best known as the flavoring ingredient in Key Lime pie, this citrus species is a shrubby tree with many thorns. Its fruit is in a class all its own and ranges in size from ping-pong to golf ball.

Pete Bacheler

Palm Trees

Palm trees are associated with sun, sand, vacations and the relaxed lifestyle in the Florida Keys. There are about 2,600 species of palm trees, almost all of which can be grown in Florida.

Hibiscus

These eye-catching flowers attract butterflies, bees and hummingbirds. They are used to make tea and other beverages, and also represent nations as the national flower of several countries.

Cinnamon Edgar

Tabebuia

Primarily used for lumber; these trees are best known for their showy vibrant yellow flowers which look like trumpets and are an important source of nectar for hummingbirds and bees.

HISTORIC ISLAMORADA

Islamorada's history spans more than 3,000 years and represents a fascinating story of nature's power and human courage in an island paradise. The Matecumbe Historical Trust is a non-profit organization dedicated to the education, history and preservation of the Florida Keys; free information is available by calling or visiting online.

The Trust created the Heritage Monument Trail: Markers and descriptive plaques are located throughout the islands marking sites of historical interest, and a colorful self-guided tour brochure is available, mapping the locations of the markers and giving a brief history of each.

THE HIGHWAY

The Florida Keys Overseas Highway is a National Scenic Byway, designated by the U.S. Congress in 1960. It is the longest and the highest road in the world.

It has been called "the Road to Nowhere," the "most spectacular road in the world," and even the "Road to Nowhere." It is a road that not only takes you somewhere, but it is a destination unto itself. It is a road where you can dip your toes in the Gulf of Mexico.
